There was (1) Use of Force Reports submitted for the month of September 2024.

Police received repeated phone calls associated to the victim. Police subsequently gained access to the residence where the victim was located with a fresh cut to her forehead. The accused was located hiding behind an open fridge door in the kitchen, advised he was under arrest. The accused was actively resisting arrest refusing to comply with police commands. During the altercation, one officer suffered a cut to his hand, the officer deployed his taser in attempt to gain control of the accused. The accused continued to resist arrest and was eventually placed into handcuffs after a lengthy altercation with 3 officers.
